

LOST IN TRANSLATION

March

2012

**

I am hoping to get to take a trip to a ski resort in WV on one of these weekends. It will be around $170 for a Friday-Sunday. I am waiting to hear back from the resort. Please stay tuned.

Food Packing

Every month, anyone who can go, we meet at Corkran Middle School to help pack food bags for families who are struggling to make ends meet. We need all the help we can get!

Re:Play

Our once a month hangout at the church. Bring yourself and some friends for a good time of just hanging out doing nothing but playing some games, chilling, and maybe some dodge ball!

Tough Month

There are no days off of school until the very end of March. It's always a tough month...make sure you find some time to do something fun with your youth to help them relax!
